Submit Names to Be Read and Prayed for at the All Souls' Day Requiem Tomorrow

All are invited to submit the names of their departed loved ones to be read aloud and prayed for during the All Souls Requiem on November 2 at 7:00 PM. To submit names, please contact Julian Drumwright by the end of the day today at parish.administrator@asa-dc.org.

Hear Maurice Duruflé's Requiem Tuesday!

The Ascension and St. Agnes Festival Chorus will present Maurice Duruflé's Requiem with a live chamber orchestra in our stunning sanctuary Tuesday, November 3 at 7:30 PM.

Duruflé's Requiem was written in Paris in 1947 and is based on the Gregorian Chants of the traditional requiem mass, imbued with impressionistic harmonies. Come and experience this moving work for yourself!

Tickets are available now! Scan the QR code or visit asa.ludus.com.

Today, District Chorale: "To Reconcile"

Discover the power of music to inspire hope.

Join District Chorale for two beautiful and deeply moving sacred works: Andrew Smith's Requiem, featuring the unexpected combination of choir, organ, and improvisational saxophone, and Josef Friedrich Doppelbauer's exquisite Kleine Messe. Together, these works remind us that even in difficult times, music can offer comfort, connection, and renewal. Stay afterward for a reception and celebrate the joy of music and community!

Join Us for the Parish Hike November 7!

Join us Saturday, November 7 for a 3-mile parish hike at White Oak Canyon in the Shenandoah Mountains! Carpools leave the church at 8:00 AM. It is a 2-hour drive. Bring a lunch and trail mix. After the hike, we'll stop at a terrific art gallery in Sperryville before heading to the nearby pizza parlor. Return around 5:00 or 5:30.

Reach out to Curtis Moneymaker for questions at cmoneymaker@vts.edu.
